Across
6. ________ units are sometimes used by dentists before a sealant is applied to open fissures, remove any slight decay, and prepare the site for a placement of sealant.
7. Self-cured sealants polymerize to final set within approximately ________ minutes from the start of mixing!
12. Do you floss before or after a coronal polish?
14. The most ideal positioning when flossing is at the ________ o’clock position
15. There are ________ types of polishing agents.
17. What procedure only polishes specific surfaces with stains?
19. True or False: You cannot store sealant material near eugenol-containing products.
20. What kind of stains originate within the tooth as a result of developmental & Systemic disturbances?

Down
1. ________ must be used to hold your instrument or handpiece steady.
2. What teeth should use 3 strokes when polishing?
3. Bacteria ________ survive beneath a properly placed sealant because the carbs that they need to survive cannot reach them.
4. Use a ________ ________ to brush the surface that you are polishing, before you use a rubber cup.
5. Too much sealant material interproximally can result in blocked ________.
8. Fillers are available in two resins, the ________ resin wears down on its own.
9. Use ________ speed handpiece to polish teeth.
10. True or False: Applying enchant material is an expanded function.
11. ________ stains are stains that originate outside of the tooth in response to environmental agents.
13. Sealants act as a physical ________ that prevents decay.
16. Pits and fissures are especially useful during the ages ________ to 15 years.
18. You must use care and cution when placing an ________ so that it does not contact adjacent teeth or soft tissue!