

Hand Hygiene

Across

- 3. example of artificial nails
- 6. You can scrub with dermatitis or lesions only if you cover it with an adhesive barrier first. true/false
- 10. Scrubbing with a _____ may damage skin and increase the amount of bacteria shedding from hands.
- 11. Hand hygiene should be performed after removing PPE, handling _____, and counting sponges
- 12. _____ washing needs to be performed before the first surgical hand scrub of the day
- 13. Alcohol foam is flammable . It should not be place above an _____ source.

- 14. The first surgical hand scrub of the day does not have to be with soap and water before using a surgical hand rub product.
  - 15. This must be removed prior to surgical hand scrub or hand rub.
  - 16. Due to the risk for _____ failure, the performance of surgical hand antiseptisi is critical for the prevention of SSIs
  - 18. Perform hand hygiene after contact with patient _____.
  - 19. Natural fingernail tips should be no longer than 2 _____.
- Down
- 1. _____ based surgical hand rub dispensers can be placed in the O.R.
  - 2. type of nail polish allowed if maintained and not chipped

- 4. the use of gloves does not replace the need for _____
- 5. _____ is using soap and water to perform hand hygiene
- 7. Perioperatiave members should only use _____ moisturizing skin care products
- 8. Surgical hand antiseptis is the _____ line of defense to protect patients from pathogens on the hands of perioperative team members.
- 9. Perform hand hygiene before and after patient _____.
- 17. surgical hand antiseptis is a hand wash or hand _____ using a surgical hand antiseptic, performed preoperatively by surghical team to remove transient flora and reduce skin flora