

Name: _____

Date: _____

Hand Hygiene

Across

3. example of artificial nails

6. You can scrub with dermatitis or lesions only if you cover it with an adhesive barrier first. true/false

10. Scrubbing with a _____ may damage skin and increase the amount of bacteria shedding from hands.

11. Hand hygiene should be performed after removing PPE, handling _____, and counting sponges

12. _____ washing needs to be performed before the first surgical hand scrub of the day

13. Alcohol foam is flammable . It should not be place above an _____ source.

14. The first surgical hand scrub of the day does not have to be with soap and water before using a surgical hand rub product.

15. This must be removed prior to surgical hand scrub or hand rub.

16. Due to the risk for _____ failure, the performance of surgical hand antisepsis is critical for the prevention of SSIs

18. Perform hand hygiene after contact with patient _____.

19. Natural fingernail tips should be no longer than 2 _____.

Down

1. _____ based surgical hand rub dispensers can be placed in the O.R.

2. type of nail polish allowed if maintained and not chipped

4. the use of gloves does not replace the need for _____

5. _____ is using soap and water to perform hand hygiene

7. Perioperative members should only use _____ moisturizing skin care products

8. Surgical hand antisepsis is the _____ line of defense to protect patients from pathogens on the hands of perioperative team members.

9. Perform hand hygiene before and after patient _____.

17. surgical hand antisepsis is a hand wash or hand _____ using a surgical hand antiseptic, performed preoperatively by surgical team to remove transient flora and reduce skin flora