

Name: _____

Biomes

Across

2. A cold, dry, mostly treeless land biome located at high altitude or at high latitudes

6. How plants make their own food through this process

7. animal relationship (4 types)

11. A forest biome with broad-leaf trees that lose their leaves at the end of the growing season; has distinct seasons

14. Large land region in which the main types of plants are grasses

15. one animal benefits and one is fine

16. The uppermost layer of a forest at the tops of the trees

17. A conifer forest biome located south of the tundra

19. On animal benefits and one is hurt

20. Layer of Earth in the tundra biome that is frozen to a depth of about one metre year round

Down

1. Both animals benefit

3. Tree that produces seeds in cones and has needle like leaves

4. Dry climate that receives an average of less than 25 centimeters of rainfall per year

5. All living and nonliving things in an area

8. Tree that drops its leaves at the end of the growing season

9. A mid-latitude climate

10. A wet, warm biome with 3 layers of forest; the canopy, understory, and forest floor

12. Biome consisting of a grassland with scattered trees

13. A large region of land with a distinct climate and certain types of plant and animal life

18. The general pattern of weather in a particular part of the world over a long period of time