

Name: _____

Date: _____

Rhetorical Devices

Across

1. Contrast of ideas by means of parallel arrangement of words or clauses
3. Rhetorical conclusion or summary
7. Figure of speech combining contradictory terms
8. Comparison of two things

10. Rhetorical use of simile or metaphor

11. Expression whose last part is decreased in effect from the prior part

12. In rhetoric, forcing a choice between two equally unfavorable choices

Down

2. Anticipating and refuting objections to an argument

4. Figurative transfer of qualities from one object or event to another

5. Rhetorical use of a pleasant or favorable form in place of a harsh one

6. Impression by extravagant exaggeration

9. Gradual increase in force of rhetorical expressions or drama of a performance