

Name: _____

Date: _____

Communicable Diseases

Across

4. A global outbreak of an infectious disease.
5. Transferred by a tick while hiking or hunting in the woods
6. A virus that affects the nose, throat, and bronchi...a yearly vaccination is the best protection.
7. A bacterial skin infection common in young children.
8. Bacterial infection that affects the lungs and causes chronic cough

9. A life threatening disease due to the progressive failure of the immune system...leads to AIDS

10. White blood cells that coordinate and perform many functions of specific immunity.

Down

1. The state of being protected against a particular disease
2. Transferred through the mom to the baby during pregnancy.
3. Abbreviation for Centers for Disease Control