

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Sponge Crossword

Across

1. An animal that feeds by straining food particles out of water
2. Also known as collar cells, they beat their flagellae to create a flow of water, and filter nutrients from water
8. A large opening out of which water exits a sponge
11. Animal that has both male and female reproductive organs
13. Jelly-like substance found between the endoderm, and ectoderm of sponges

15. Whip-like appendage found on collar cells

Down

3. All animals consist of more than one cell, making them?
4. Phylum of animals that sponges belong to
5. Absence of symmetry
6. Cells that supply the sponges other cells with nutrients
7. Form of asexual reproduction in which a new organism grows directly from a parent organism

9. The most common type of sponge, accounting for over 80% of sponges
10. Flexible fiber that composes a sponges skeleton (Not found in all sponges)
12. Organisms that are Permanently attached to a surface are?
14. Small pores on a sponges body that water and plankton enter through