

Name: _____

Date: _____

Oceanography Vocab

Across

2. A river/stream flowing into a larger body of water
 4. Fish who live in the sea but spawn in freshwater are _____
 6. They are able to stabilize their internal conditions in a changing environment
 12. Short-lived and not lasting for a long time
 13. A submarine "mountain" with a flat top
 15. A ridge of land that separates waters flowing to different rivers, basins, or seas

16. A submarine "mountain" with a rigid top

17. Able to tolerate only a small range of salinities

18. Able to tolerate a large range of temperatures

Down

1. Fish who live in freshwater but spawn in the sea are _____

3. Where the tide meets the stream

5. The area of a seabed around a large landmass where the sea is relatively shallow

7. They are not able to control their internal conditions in a changing environment

8. Fish who live in the sea but spawn in lower salinity are _____

9. Flat area in the water

10. A large narrow ditch in the ocean surface floor

11. Not a permanent resident in the Chesapeake Bay

14. Able to tolerate a large range of salinities