Internet Safety Crossword

Across

4. The site that is the starting point on the web for a particular group or organization.

5. Online communities where people share infomration about themselves (2 words).

7. A wide variety of software installed on people's computers, which collects information about you withour knolwedge or conesnt and sends it back to whoever wrote the program.

9. Allows you to block certain types of content from being displayed.

11. A location online that allows multiple users to communicate electronically with each other in real time.

13. A software program that typically arrives through email attachments and quickly exhausts the computer's memory.

17. Specific features or software that allow parens to manage the online activities of children (2 words).

19. A piece of information about your visit to a website that some websites record automatically on your computer.

21. A form of malicious code that displays unsolicited advertising on your computer.

22. People who willfully and repeatedly inflict harm through the medium of electronic text such as emails, blogs, or social network posts.

23. Participating in internet games which can be played individually or by multiple online users at the same time.

25. The act of parents tracking the websites or e-mail messages that a child visits or reads.

26. Any unsolicited e-mail, or junk mail.

27. A program that les you find, see, and hear material on web pages.

Down

1. To copy a file from one computer system to another via the internet.

2. Rules or manners for interacting courteously with others online.

3. A secret word or number tha must be used to gain access to an online service.

6. Private, real-time text conversation between two users (2 words).

8. A type of online fraud, where someone tries to trick the victim into revealing sensitive details.

10. A Friends a user interacts with online through various media such as instant message and chat.

12. A tracking feature of Internet browsers that shows all the recent websites visited.

14. A security system usually made up of hardware and software used to block hackers, viruses, and other malicious threats to your computer.

15. Stands for malicious sofware or code, that is designed to damage the computer or collect information.

16. To send information from your computer to another computer.

18. Browsing around various websites following a particular personal interest.

20. The name a suer selects to be identified on a computer, network, or in an online gaming forum.

24. A saved link to a website that you can click on rather than retyping the web address.