

Psychological disorder

Across

2. Psychological disorders characterized by distressing.
5. False beliefs, often of persecution.
6. An anxiety disorder characterized by unwanted repetitive thoughts and/or actions.
7. Pronunciation of a language.
8. False sensory experiences that may suggest mental disorder.
10. An anxiety disorder marked by a persistent, irrational fear and avoidance of a specific object.

Down

1. A mental disorder characterized by episodes of mania and depression
3. A legal term, not a psychological or psychiatric one, referring to a person who is unable, because of a mental disorder or defect, to conform his or her behavior to the law.
4. Country or language other than its own.
9. a childhood disorder characterized by inattention, impulsiveness, and hyperactivity