

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Literary elements

Across

3. The perspective

6. The central character and focus of interest that is trying to accomplish or overcome an adversity and can adapt to new problems

9. A figure of speech that compares without using like or as

11. Reference to something well-known

12. A feeling created in the reader by literary work or passage

13. A central message or insight into life revealed through the literary work ... lessons about life

15. A character that undergoes a change in actions or beliefs during the course of a story

16. The repetition of initial consonant sounds

Down

1. Repetition that stresses the point

2. A character that does not grow or change throughout the story

4. The character opposing the protagonist

5. A list of clues that suggest events that haven't occurred yet

7. Time place

8. The struggle between two opposing forces

10. A group of words whose meaning as a group cannot be understood

14. Anything that stands or represents something else