Occupational Therapy

therapies adapt abilities achieve activities balance enable encourage family function goals health helping home independence medical modify nursing occupational people performance position posture practice profession self-care strength treating walker wheelchair