

The Harlem Renaissance

Across

- 3. The foundation was laid for this 1960s movement that promoted racial integration.
- 5. Double Consciousness is when African Americans identify as both black and this.
- 6. Wrote "The Souls of Black Folk".
- 7. The Harlem Globetrotters are known as an all black _____ team.
- 8. A musician who helped develop jazz music from the blues and gospel.

- 10. This stage performer brought African American culture to New York audiences.
- 12. African Americans flooded into this area of New York.
- 13. This artist used African American motifs and folk tales as inspiration for his work.

Down

- 1. This city's population more than doubled in size.
- 2. This was another name for the Harlem Renaissance.

- 4. This writer drew on the rhythms of African American music for his work.
- 9. The Great Migration took place from 1910 to 1920 when massive amounts of black southerners moved from the rural south the urban _____.
- 11. Marcus Garvey led a "Back to _____" movement.