

Name: _____

Date: _____

Biomes

Across

- 2. Deciduous Forest
5. Has plants that retain water to survive the dryness.
6. Otherwise known as Chaparral
9. This biome has long, cold winters and short, warm, humid summers.
10. An area of land where shrubs and small trees grow. The weather is usually dry and hot.
13. Rainforest
14. Broadleaf forest dominates this biome, and deciduous trees lose their leaves in the winter.
16. a flat grassland in tropical or subtropical regions

17. dry climates that receive less than 50 centimeters of rain each year

18. Some moss and low lying plants survive. Summers last about 6 to 10 weeks, permafrost.

19. Temperatures are warm throughout the year, with definite dry and rainy seasons.

Down

1. Animals that live within the thick cover of the uppermost branches of rain forest trees use loud vocalizations to defend their territory and attract mates. Tropical Grassland

3. Warm Temperatures and abundant rainfall occur all year.

4. Temperatures are hot in the summer and cold in the winter precipitation is spaced evenly over the year.

7. Wetlands

8. Mammals have heavy fur coats to withstand the cold winters.

11. large habitat that is both the coldest and the driest of all biomes

12. Vegetation includes tall grasses with scattered trees and shrubs.

15. grassland with scattered trees, warm, meat eaters. in africa, australia, south America

20. Dry