

Transportation

Across

2. Telephone without a physical connection to a network
3. Tool with a metal head
8. The matter of which a thing is or can be made from
10. A metal used for constructing
11. The age of which tools and weapons were made out of iron
12. An alloy of iron used as a structural/fabricating material
14. Device that trims thickness of boards
15. Power tool that cuts quickly
17. The trade of people who build/repair machinery
19. The material that makes up the inside of a tree
20. Jobs requiring special skills/training

22. A material made from wood pulp to draw/write/print things on
23. Electric device to store/process data

25. The age of which tools and weapons were made out of bronze
26. A thing made for a particular purpose
27. The trade of people who specialize in welding materials together

Down

1. The age of which economies are based on computerized data
4. The ages of which things were made in
5. Electric tool that fuses metal
6. Machine that helps mount/dismount tires

7. The age of which the economy is based on computerization of information
9. The age of which the concentration of industry was in large establishments and power-driven machines
13. The trade of people who specialize in cutting, shaping, and installing materials in the construction of buildings
16. The age of which tools and weapons were made out of stone
18. Engine that uses expansion/rapid condensation of steam to work
21. A mineral matter of which rock is made from
24. The trade of people who specialize in installing, assembling, fabricating, and maintaining piping systems