Across
3. treatment intended to relieve or heal a disorder
9. a written or spoken discourse expressing considered thoughts on a subject
10. anything that brings back thoughts, feelings, and memories that have to do with addiction
11. any characteristic or behavioral pattern that enhances a person's adaptation
12. a feeling of fellowship with others, as a result of sharing common attitudes, interests, and goals
13. the group of family, friends, colleagues, or professionals available to help a person or organization when required

Down
1. the action of restoring someone to health or normal life through training and therapy after imprisonment, addiction, or illness
2. the action of stopping something from happening or arising
4. a powerful desire for something
5. a return to a normal state of health, mind, or strength
6. one helps mentor someone with less experience, especially when that person is a newcomer.
7. a drug or other substance affecting mood or behavior and sold for nonmedical purposes, especially an illegal one
8. the fact or condition of being dependent to a particular substance, thing, or activity