

Sociology Unit III Worksheet

Across

1. The parents of a small child (even infants) arrange a future marriage with another child's parents
2. It is a type of marriage in which the wives are not related as sisters
14. When several brothers share the same wife
15. the practice or custom of having more than one wife or husband at the same time
16. Arranged marriage not involving the parents where the man or woman is selected from a catalog from another country
18. individuals are permitted to marry again often on the death of the first spouse or after divorce
20. It is the marriage of one woman with more than one man

21. In this remarriage is not allowed

22. This form of marriage involves a reciprocal exchange of spouses between two nations, groups, or tribes

Down

3. In this type the husband need not have any close relationship prior to the marriage
4. Marriages are arranged for political reasons, to cement alliances between royal families
5. the marital partners are chosen by parents, community elders, matchmakers, or religious leaders
6. The marriage of two or more women with two or more men
7. arranged marriages became less common in the?

8. It is a type of marriage in which the wives are invariably the sisters
9. It is a rule of marriage in which the life-partners are to be selected within the group
10. It is a form of marriage in which one man marries more than one woman at a given time
11. one of the universal social institutions established to control and regulate the life of mankind
12. promised to each other for marriage
13. someone who practices Polygyny or Polyandry
17. form of marriage in which one man marries one woman
19. It is a rule of marriage in which an individual has to marry outside his own group