

Wolff- Animal Farm Crossward

Across

- 1. container for garbage or pig food
- 2. ponderous; graceless
- 5. lawyer; person who acts as an agent for others
- 9. watery; filled with mucous
- 11. ardent or zealous follower
- 14. a vocal expression of sorrow
- 18. to find fault with, condemn
- 19. a trick in a war to deceive the enemy
- 21. a nest of eggs or brood of chicks
- 22. to agitate greatly; to search
- 27. absolutely, entirely
- 30. schemes
- 32. a young hen
- 33. burial
- 35. group acting as a unit
- 36. intimate; familiar

- 38. the practice of killing infants
 - 39. bearing; facial expression
 - 40. to exist; hold
 - 41. to help
 - 42. a soft, warm dressing applied to sores
 - 43. resentment; anger
- Down
- 3. tending to overthrow or destroy
 - 4. to make up for; balance
 - 6. look; expression
 - 7. a drunk
 - 8. sullen; gloomy
 - 10. rest; peace
 - 12. habitually silent
 - 13. betrayal
 - 15. sneaking
 - 16. malice; intense ill will or hatred
 - 17. peacefully

- 20. imposed as a duty or obligation
- 23. a sign of trouble
- 24. sediment contained in a liquid
- 25. spread throughout
- 26. obsolete; too old
- 28. capable of being plowed
- 29. wanting to make peace with
- 31. payment
- 34. a guard
- 37. a train of attendants who follow a prince