

Interconnections

Across

3. a mnemonic (memory device) for remembering the essential elements of a map

6. the relationship between all things and all processes, both natural and human

9. a simplified plan of an area shown from directly above the area

10. the shapes and patterns in which things are arranged on the Earth's surface

12. the level at which a geographical inquiry takes place (personal, local, regional, national or global)

14. geographical study on location of the site of the inquiry

16. a specific place on Earth and all the things that are there

Down

1. relating to employment, income and trade

2. a part of Earth's surface that is identified and given meaning by people

4. to add notes which explain, comment or clarify

5. the components necessary for any business or city, such as buildings, electricity, roads, airports and water supply

7. data collected for a geographical inquiry from another source, such as textbooks, atlases and government websites

8. the confirmation that information is from a reputable, trustworthy source that can be verified as legitimate and accurate

11. data collected for a geographical inquiry, such as survey data, hand-drawn maps or photographs

13. where things are located on the Earth's surface

15. the way things are arranged on the Earth's surface