

Name: _____

Communication Skills Review Sheet

Across

3. Communication barrier where recipient predetermines the full message before completion.
5. Starting a message without engaging the listener first.
6. Being born with a mouth disease that makes speaking difficult.
7. Being afraid that you will be judged for expressing your opinion.
10. Communication that involves speaking or saying a message.
12. The process of sending and receiving a message.

14. Communication that shows attention to a person sending a message.
15. Waving at someone to say "Hello" is an example of _____ Communication.
16. Communication that involves how a person carries themselves.
17. A skill required to make the pathway of communication complete.
Down
1. Letting feelings and thoughts effect how a message is presented.

2. Posters, Signs, colors, images, objects are examples of _____ Communication.
4. Barrier where external factors affect a message.
8. Not responding to text may create a _____ barrier.
9. Contradiction to a message. "Sitting there running"
11. Communication barrier that involves sending a message in a confusing way.
13. Message barrier where the recipient is distracted or not paying attention.