Name: _____

employment

Across

6. people who do not contribute to the economy and are supported by the working population

8. this can be lowered to reduce unemployment

9. the government receives more of this if there is high employment

10. the statistical study of the human population

11. a consequence of high emigration rates

Down

1. a publication containing all those in receipt of job seekers benefit and job seekers allowance

2. when the average income per head is at its highest possible under given economic resources

3. a type of unemplyment that arises due to obstacles to the mobility of labour or the removal of the incentive to work

4. a type of unemployment that arises due to fluctuations in the business cylcle

5. people moving abroad to find work elsewhere

7. a measure to reduce the gender pay gap