

Chapter 4 and 5 Vocab

Across

- 1. related to sleep walking
- 2. inflexible, stubborn, not yielding
- 7. any New Yorker
- 9. to change continually, shift back and forth
- 10. heroic courage, bravery
- 13. an inhabitant, a resident, one that requests a particular place
- 15. to draw or bring out or forth, educe, evoke

- 17. an overwhelming defeat
- 18. easy and sprightly in manner or bearing
- 20. punishment from a higher being for bad deeds or transgressions

Down

- 3. appearing or happening at irregular intervals in time, occasional
- 4. subject to or in a state of ecstasy, rapturous
- 5. to find fault with (a person, group, etc.), blame

- 6. very numerous, incapable of being counted, countless
- 8. to do away with, abolish, stop
- 11. a king or prince in India, a minor chief or dignitary
- 12. hazy, vogue, indistinct, or confused
- 14. to show or feel a lively or triumphant joy, rejoice, be highly elated or jubilant
- 16. heavy and clumsy, bulky
- 19. a slave