

Name: _____

Date: _____

Interview crossword

Across

4. A question that allows an interviewee to answer in any number of ways.

5. A portable case containing a sample of a job candidate's best school assignments or examples of other work done.

6. A brief written account of your education, qualifications, and work experience.

8. A question that follows a closed question in order to gather more information.

9. The person who asks the question in an interview.

10. Question to be asked at the end of an interview

Down

1. A question that calls on the person responding to take a guess or use his or her imagination.

2. The person who answers the questions in an interview.

3. A question that is limited to a specific piece of information or a simple "yes" or "no" answer.

7. A structured conversation designed to gather information.