

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pressure Ulcer Crossword

Across

3. A resident being unable to _____ themselves puts him/her at risk.

5. Skin _____ should be done every time the resident gets a shower.

9. _____ puts a resident at risk.

11. _____ must be evaluated and updated often when a resident has a pressure ulcer.

12. Keeping a residents skin clean and _____ helps prevent pressure ulcers.

13. Encouraging a resident to eat/drink at _____ can help prevent weight loss.

14. A pressure _____ is any lesion caused by a constant pressure that harms the tissue underneath the skin.

17. Pressure _____ are those areas where bones cause force on the skin and squeezes them against an outside force.

18. _____ is the force that occurs when the skin sticks to a surface and the body slides.

Down

1. Getting enough _____ and protein is very important.

2. It is important to protect the skin from _____.

4. The elderly may be at a greater risk due to the changes in the skin related to _____.

6. As a care _____, you must report to the nurse when residents have a change in their skin.

7. Food _____ records are important for the dietitian/nurses to know when a resident is not eating.

8. Pressure ulcers can be very painful for a _____.

10. _____ and repositioning residents is important.

15. Preventing weight _____ is important.

16. If a resident has had a pressure ulcer before, he/she is more at _____ for getting another one.