

The Freedom Writers

Across

4. having committed an offense
6. Law. a person, company, etc., against whom a claim or charge is brought in a court
12. free from moral wrong
13. to break, infringe, or transgress
14. to afflict with great bodily or mental suffering; pain
15. esteem for or a sense of the worth or excellence of a person
17. of, relating to, or coming as from a particular person; individual; private
19. a condition, detail, part, or attribute, with respect to time
20. honesty, fairness, or integrity in one's beliefs and actions

Down

1. something designed to preserve the memory of a person
2. to censure or find fault with.
3. conforming or adhering to accepted standards, as of conduct or taste
5. to cause (a person) a painful loss of pride, self-respect, or dignity; mortify.
7. something considered by an authority or by general consent as a basis of comparison; an approved model.
8. beyond what is usual, ordinary, regular, or established
9. without fear; bold or brave; intrepid.
10. the state or condition of having little or no money, goods, or means of support; condition of being poor.
11. honesty, fairness, or integrity in one's beliefs and actions
16. reduced in rank, position, reputation
18. resistance against attack; protection