Answer Key

Across

- 2. a machine where it allow you to draw out money from your account
- 6. Must be clear before it is lift by the bank, (as some to do with your account)
- 9. Tell the bank to transfer the funds to the check holder
- 11. you don't have the money for something
- 14. a account control by more than one person.
- 15. your 4 digit number protect the money in your account
- 17. where you can earn money by bank with someone

- 18. Recieves both the paper and electronic forms of a check
- 19. Can put money into your account with this small piece of
- 20. where you pay monthly to bank with someone

Down

- 1. Moving funds electronically
- 3. where you charged money for using more then you have
- 4. A account that allow you to deposit money, make withdrawals, and make transfers from the funds on 16. Once the money is paid to the depoist

- 5. what is it call that keeps track of everything you purchase and make withdrawals from
- 7. When the bank allowing the money to be send, and when the check is good
- 8. The check is not valid unless the payee writes or stamps the check
- 10. once person has access to this account only
- 12. Puts check directly into the account
- 13. The owner of the account
- payee, what happens to the check