

To Kil a Mockingbird

Across

1. given to contemplation or deep thought
2. to persist in a purpose, idea, or task
4. where you live
5. made something last
9. religious devotion and reverence to God
11. causing nausea or upset stomach
13. having or exhibiting hatred
16. presenting favorable circumstances
21. causing aggravation or annoyance
22. those who exist/live at the same time
23. inclination to perform charitable acts
25. a winged, chubby angel
26. a prison for criminals
29. inclined to make trouble; unruly
30. created an enemy or an antagonist
32. not audible; cannot be heard

34. heavily indulging in; rolling in
  36. not noticeable or prominent
  38. to walk at a slow, leisurely pace.
  39. with a willingness to talk, share
  40. gruesome, gloomy, or dark
  41. condition of being confused
  42. under force of necessity; obligated
  43. One who sells medicines
  44. tending to fight; quarrelsome
- Down
3. deviations from the proper course
  6. a magnificent, decorated tomb
  7. a right or privilege
  8. strange or unusual qualities
  10. detestable; unpleasant
  12. irritations and annoyances
  14. an act of escaping or avoiding
  15. pleasant; good-natured
  17. state of calm, peacefulness, serenity

18. to carve or shape
19. characterized by cleverness or originality
20. approached in a harsh manner; assaulted
24. distant; unfeeling
27. possessing connections, similarities
28. a feeling of humiliation
31. a special allowance; privilege
33. spotlessly clean and fresh
35. to speak clearly and in distinct syllables
37. Made less severe or burdensome