Health Insurance Terms Crossword

Across

- 2. A term used in managed care for an approved referral
- 8. A request that an insured or the insured's health care provider makes to the health plan to pay for a health care service provided to the insured.
- 9. protection in return for periodic premium payments that provides reimbursement of expenses resulting from illness or injury
- 10. An insurance term used when a primary care provider wants to send a patient to a specialist Down
- 1. A provision of the Insurance Contract that requires the insured to pay a percentage of all eligible medical expenses that result from sickness or injury.

- 3. A payment method used by many managed care organizations in which a fixed amount of money is reimbursed to the provider for patients enrolled during a specific period of time, no matter what services were received or how many visits were made.
- 4. An established schedule of fees set for services performed by providers and paid by the patient
- 5. A physician specialist focuses on a specific area of medicine or a group of patients to diagnose, manage, prevent or treat certain types of symptoms and conditions.
- 6. periodic (monthly, quarterly, or annual) payment of a specific sum of money to an insurance company for which the insurer, in return, agrees to provide certain benefits
- 7. the sum of money paid at the time of medical service; it is a form of coinsurance