Block 2 and 3 Review

Across

2. a web address that has been obscured or concealed
3. example of a Single Search engine
8. Real time, parallel multi search engine
11. needs specific authentication to gain access
13. An example of primary information source
14. The standard protocol for the Internet is 15. part of web with websites that are indexed by normal search engines

17. The URL, has 3 basic parts: the protocol, the domain name and the ___.
19. Sites that offer internet access over a WLAN
20. links to relevant sites, systematically arranged in a tree like structure

Down

1. An example of a metasearch engine
4. single search engines
5. More than half the world uses a
6. Searching multiple single search engines

7. involves scanning a site and getting a complete list of everything
9. The ___ marks 40th anniversary in 2009
10. This search engine is introduced 1998
12. An example of tertiary information source
16. This type of connection has slower speeds due to distance
18. This is is rarely visible in URLs but always required...