

Name: _____

Date: _____

Child Development Unit 1 Vocabulary

Across

3. a developmental process that refers to the growth of the brain and the use of mental skills

7. a person's surroundings and everything in them, including both human and non-human factors

9. period of childhood from one to three years of age

11. the first to study children in a scientific way; he said that children go through four stages of thinking and should be given learning tasks suitable for each stage

13. a child old enough to attend school. Ages 5-12

14. an act of recognizing and recording behavior

16. Austrian psychiatrist whose theory states that a person's early emotional experiences affect adult life profoundly

18. a developmental process that refers to the physical growth of a person's body. This growth affects height, weight, and internal body systems.

19. the study of how children grow and change physically, intellectually, emotionally, socially and morally

20. a series of stages a person passes through during his or her lifetime. They are: Infancy, Toddler, Preschool, School Age, and Adolescent

Down

1. a development process that refers to the ability to experience, express, and control emotions

2. Italian educator whose theory states children learn best through their senses pursuing their own interests at their own rate

4. developmental process that refers to the ability to know right from wrong

5. a school providing children freedom within limits by a rather structured approach, and a fixed method in which materials are presented

6. a developmental process that refers to the way people relate to others around them

8. period of childhood from three to five years of age

10. the period of great growth and change between childhood and adulthood

12. period of childhood from birth up to one year

15. a scientifically acceptable principle followed as the basis of action

17. the sum of all the qualities a person inherits from his or her parents at birth