

Economics chapter 1

Across

- 1. economy's productive resources shown on a graph
- 3. deciding on if what you do causes sacrifice and gain
- 5. a machine that does work for you
- 12. the shortage of supplies
- 14. someone that works to create goods and services
- 16. a line on a production that shows the maximum possible output an economy can produce (Production is the first part of the voc but is not in the cross puzzles)
- 18. situation where you can't get enough goods or service
- 20. a desire to have something

- 22. The study of how people make decisions on their wants and needs
 - 23. giving up a benefit for something ever better
 - 24. working for pay
 - 25. after deciding one is given up
 - 26. helping someone to do work
- Down
- 2. the extra cost of adding one unit
 - 4. a saying that means two similar choices
 - 6. inputs that are used in the production of goods and services
 - 7. once all factors of production are at maximum output and efficiency, producing more than average

- 8. the decision of if you should do something
- 9. the extra benefit of adding one unit
- 10. fewer resources than capable
- 11. skilled workers gained through education and hard work
- 13. resources used to maximize the output of goods and services
- 15. something you can't live without
- 17. anything that you buy
- 19. natural resources to produce goods
- 21. wealth in the form of money or other assets owned by people