

Juvenile Justice Test Chapter 1 and 2

Across

- 4. Many due process rights were accorded juveniles as a result of the ruling in the U.S. Supreme Court case of In re _____.
- 5. Crimes punishable by one year or more imprisonment are known as _____.
- 8. Public opinion polls show that Americans believe that _____ should be the purpose of the juvenile justice system.
- 9. The _____ movement favors maximum penalties and punishments for crimes or delinquent acts.

- 10. In the middle 19th century, _____ schools were created as the juvenile equivalent of prisons.
- 11. _____ refers to the removal of status offenders from secure juvenile facilities.
- 13. _____ are notifications made to juvenile justice authorities that a juvenile requires the court's attention.

Down

- 1. _____ is the power of a court to hear a particular case.
- 2. _____ is a judgment or action on a petition filed with the juvenile court.

- 3. The notion of juveniles progressing from status offenses to more serious offenses is known as _____ escalation.
- 6. The action of police officers who view status offenders as delinquents is an example of _____.
- 7. To minimize _____, diversion of certain types of juvenile offenders from the juvenile justice system has been recommended.
- 12. Youths deemed more susceptible to gang influence and delinquent peers are referred to as _____.