

Name: _____

Weathering, Erosion, and Deposition

Across

- The _____ from flowing water can carry sediment down a river.
- Very small pieces of rock, sand, and silt carried by water.
- A hill's _____ affects how gravity will act on it.
- When huge chunks of rock and soil slide down a slope all at once.

Down

- Hills formed from the dropped-off sediment from glaciers.
- The dropping of weathered rock by wind or moving water.
- Huge sheets of ice.
- The process of rock breaking apart.
- This causes rocks and sediment to slide down mountains and cliffs.
- This carries sediment down a river or along a beach.
- Carries soil and other sediment