

History Chapter 20 Crossword

Across

2. What is an economic system in which businesses are owned by private citizens who decide what to produce and how much to charge

6. What do you call shares in a corporation's profit

10. Small railroad companies were often costly to run, so many companies began to

13. With what method do workers stay in place while products go down a moving belt

14. He was a shrewd businessman who bought an oil refinery instead of drilling for oil. that helped him to make lots of money and drive his competition out of business.

16. What is the name of the fire that killed nearly 150 people, mostly young women, in a sweatshop in New York

17. What was the name of the labor rally in Chicago that ended in violence when a bomb exploded

19. The workers who replaced people who went on strike

20. What do you call gaining control of all the steps to transform raw materials into a finished product

21. Who were the two bicycle mechanics that invented the first airplane

22. What means across the Atlantic

Down

1. Who was a great business man who worked with steel. He used the Bessemer process to make a lot of money. He bought out a lot of his competitors

3. What do you call a business that is owned by investors

4. What do you call control of all the businesses in an industry

5. What is the right of unions to negotiate with management for workers as a group

7. Who was a teacher of the deaf, who invented the telephone

8. The making of large amounts of a product quickly and cheaply

9. What enabled the steel workers to create better steel at lower prices

11. What do you call a single group of corporations run by a single board of directors

12. Who was called "The Wizard of Menlo Park", made a moving picture invention, and invented the light bulb

15. Licenses for new invention were called _____. Nearly 60 were granted every day.

18. Who were the people that opposed all forms of organized government