Thank you Mr. Falker

Across

5. A mean, overbearing person who habitually badgers, teases and intimidates smaller or weaker people.

6. humming, noisy, busy, filled with excitement, whispering about something new and exciting

8. stylish, sophisticated, fancy, fashionable, classy, beautiful

9. galloped, leaped, jumped, raced smart, genius, intelligent, clever, impressive, skillful

To irritate, make fun,or provoke with persistent petty distractions or other annoyance, often in sport.
Down

1. A state of knowing information, facts, or principles gained by sight, study or experience.

2. stuttered, tripped (messed up the words), made mistakes, looked clumsy, hesitated flaws, weakness, failure

cleverness, slyness,

craftiness

7. Worth remembering; notable; easily remembered.

10. wished for, desired, wanted, ache for, yearn for