

Objective 2.01

Across

3. A type of learning that is highly institutionalized, recognized with grades, diplomas, or certificates
4. One bound by legal agreement to work for another for a specific amount of time in return for instruction in a trade, art, or business
7. An official document showing the educational work of a student in a school or college
11. A test developed and maintained by the US Department of Defense

12. A type of learning organized outside of the formal education system
13. A type of work experience for entry-level-job-seekers
14. Created by the secretary of labor to determine the skills our young people need to succeed in the world of work

Down

1. An official document that gives proof and detail of educational achievements
2. High school students taking college courses

5. Education after high school
6. A degree received after completing the curriculum of a 2-year community college program
8. Advanced placement, college courses taken in high school
9. Vocational student organizations that help develop leadership skills
10. A degree achieved after completing a 4- year college program