

Hunter-Gatherers

Across

- language made this easier
- people who hunt animals and gather wild plants, seeds, fruits, and nuts to survive (2 words)
- A community of people who share common culture
- the most important development of the early Stone Age
- They painted images of people and _____
- Language made it easier to resolve issues like how to _____ food

Down

- they believe early humans lived in small groups
- this gender collected plants to eat
- This gender were mostly hunters
- They also used this to express themselves
- where early humans took shelter during bad weather