

The Development of Human Societies

Across

3. a member of a people having no permanent abode, and who travel from place to place to find fresh pasture for their livestock

7. a period that began around 2.5 million B.C and ended around 8000 B.C

8. the practice of growing plants and rearing animals for food

9. the large animals of particular region, habitat, or geological period

10. a area where the earliest farming villages were

Down

1. a scientist who studies the cultural development of humans

2. a period that began around 10000 B.C and ended around 8000 B.C

4. a scientist who studies past human life by analyzing fossils and artifacts

5. encouraging the growth of crops and plants

6. the beginning of farming