

A New Industrial Age

Across

3. On March 25, 1911 was the deadliest industrial disaster in the history of the city, and one of the deadliest in US history.

4. A contract between a worker and an employer in which the worker agrees not to remain in or join a union.

7. An alliance of skilled workers in craft unions; concentrated on bread-and-butter issues such as higher wages, shorter hours, and better working conditions.

9. A series of laws passed in western states of the United States after the American Civil War to regulate grain elevator and railroad freight rates and rebates and to address long- and short-haul discrimination and other railroad abuses against farmers.

10. The use of an arbitrator to settle a dispute.

11. The combination in one company of two or more stages of production normally operated by separate companies.

12. A labor union of people of the same skilled craft.

13. a labor union composed of workers in various trades and crafts within one industry.

Down

1. Negotiation of wages and other conditions of employment by an organized body of employees.

2. The process of a company increasing production of goods or services at the same part of the supply chain.

5. A theory that individuals, groups, and peoples are subject to the same Darwinian laws of natural selection as plants and animals.

6. A person who works or is employed in place of others who are on strike, thereby making the strike ineffectual.

8. The labor union of the late 1800s composed mostly of highly skilled craft unions unwilling to sacrifice for unskilled workers easily replaced by scabs during a strike