

E-commerce Terms

Across

3. Any type of business or commercial activity on the internet; the application of information.

8. Applications or services that are enabled or accessible through mobile devices (wireless handheld devices).

9. A virtual market or industry where goods are exchanged, bought, or sold through telecommunication technologies.

10. business or transactions conducted directly between a company and consumers who are the end-users of its products or services.

Down

1. A financial document that represents an investment in a stock (a publicly-traded corporation) or bond (a creditor relationship with a corporation).

2. The plan implemented by a company to generate revenue and make profit.

4. Business that include the transaction of buying or selling online (the internet).

5. It is a designated payment that is applicable by different methods of transaction such as credit card, PayPal, etc.

6. is a type of commerce transaction that is based on the exchange of products and services from one business to another.

7. The idea or image of a specific product or service that consumers connect with- name, slogan, or design.