

Name: _____

Date: _____

Finding an Apartment

Across

2. person renting the apartment

4. an important safety consideration and also determines your ease of getting to work, buying groceries, and so on

8. the company of individual who owns an apartment

11. sum of money, usually equal to one month's rent, held by the landlord to cover any damage to the apartment caused by a tenant

12. the payment, usually monthly, that the tenant pays to the landlord

Down

1. one individual apartment ;large apartment building may contain 20 or more units.

3. services needed to make a house or apartment functional, such as hot water, electricity, natural gas, and cable and Internet service

5. rent and/or other charges are to be paid at such place or method designated by the OWNER

6. monthly income

7. length of a rental agreement, usually a period of one year

9. courtesy allows both parties time to make other arrangements

10. a legal document signed by both the tenant and the landlord that contains the terms of the agreement