

Vision

Across

4. This is a gap or cleft in part of the eye.
8. This is a common way to remove cataracts.
10. This zone of ROP affects the central vision.
12. This eye disease is rare and usually occurs in males in their late 20s.
13. This eye disease has three zones and five stages.
16. Amblyopia causes this eye disease.
18. This eye disease is known as a plumbing problem.
19. This is indicated by the second number on an eyeglasses prescription.
21. The leading cause of blindness in the world.
24. People with this syndrome have coloboma(s) in their eyes and ear abnormalities.

25. Farsightedness is known as _____.

26. This is a genetic and progressive eye disease that causes the retina to deteriorate.
27. During this syndrome rapid hearing loss and RP occur between age 10 and 20.
28. A tendency for the eye to turn up.
29. During stage four of ROP _____ has begun to occur.
30. This condition is caused from the underdevelopment of the optic nerve.

Down

1. A negative prescription indicates that the person has _____ vision.
2. This zone of ROP affects the peripheral vision.
3. This part of the eye provides most of the eyes refractive power.
5. The doctor that is responsible for prescribing optical devices.

6. Blindness occurred after birth.

7. This part of the eye is responsible for peripheral and night vision.
9. People with this eye disease are typically photophobic.
11. Cancer of the eye.
14. This progressive eye disease affects the central vision first, then peripheral.
15. This eye disease affects clarity, contrast, and night vision.
17. The ADD section of a prescription means that the person has _____.
20. 20/200 or worse in the better eye with correction of a visual field of less than 20 degrees.
22. This is the word for normal vision.
23. Color preference and a need for visual movement are characteristic of this eye disease.