

Name: _____

Date: _____

know your machine

Across

3. attaches presser foot to machine-button and can change easily to different feet
 8. guide when making buttonholes
 10. thread, fabric, and stitch must be set at its according tension.
 13. holds needle in place
 14. change stitch length and width

15. holds fabric against teeth

16. guides when winding bobbins

Down

1. holds the top thread in place
 2. controls movement of take up lever and needle
 4. measurements help you sew straight and support fabric during sewing.
 5. leads thread to a needle

6. Lowers and raises presser foot

7. is a disc that regulates tension for bobbin winding

9. locks stitches into place by stitching backwards

11. moves fabric along under presser foot

12. it controls the flow of the needle thread. Must be properly threaded or the machine will not work.