Across

2. These facilities house elderly patients who can no longer live independently because of health or other issues.
6. These facilities are equipped to handle a broad range of medical needs, including emergency and surgical services
9. Is both a health service and health insurance.
10. The relationships between social and economic elements, also shape health services
12. Advances in medicine reach the general public through the
14. Or care for the terminally ill, is also often delivered in the home.
15. Controlling symptoms and making the person as comfortable as possible while allowing them to die with dignity.
17. Federal, state, and local governments operate these hospitals.
18. The doctor patients see regularly to maintain overall health, is the leader of the team. These doctors are known as general practitioners, or family doctors.
19. Unlike general hospitals, specialty hospitals limit their practices to a specific age or condition.
20. These professionals acquire more education and skills than a registered nurse and can perform some services generally reserved for doctors.

Down

1. This type of medical facility often is the home to research and educational programs
3. The study of disease
4. These health professionals are responsible for filling prescriptions and dispensing medications.
5. Those that do not require a hospital stay
7. Meaning illnesses that will be fatal
8. Are the professionals who administer the health care. They all work together to make sure that all aspects of the patient’s health are monitored.
11. Especially among the elderly who are more likely to have health issues
13. The government also provides insurance for those who cannot afford it
16. One of the largest government insurance programs is

Word Bank

HMO
Long-term care facilities
Medicaid
Epidemiology
Pharmacists

Medicare
 Palliative care,
Specialty hospitals
Medigap
Health care system

University or College hospitals nurse practitioners
terminal illnesses
General hospitals
outpatient procedures

primary care physician
Health care teams
Hospice care
Government hospitals
Socioeconomics