

OSHA

Across

4. When an exposure incident occurs one of the 1st steps taken is to tell:
 5. Assistants, hygienists and doctors are allowed to remove the needles from syringes and dispose into sharps containers?
 7. Who pays for a post exposure evaluation?
 8. Every state has the same OSHA standards

9. What color is mostly used to indicate bio hazardous materials?
 10. Which can be transmitted through blood but not through the air?
 12. OSHA standards are designed to protect employees:

Down

1. A source of occupational exposure?

2. Treating all blood and certain bodily fluids as if they were infectious
 3. Main OSHA standard that applies to dental offices
 6. Pictograms are used to show information on hazards of certain chemicals?

11. Safety Data Sheets (SDS) were formerly known as?

Word Bank

Compliance manager
 False
 Standard precautions
 Hand hygiene

MSDS
 Bloodborne pathogen
 True
 Employer

Chairbacks
 False
 HBV
 Orange