

Name: _____

work place health and safety

Across

1. Legal duty that employers are obligated to allocate.
5. _____ are required for workers carrying out certain classes of high risk work.
6. responsibilities of an _____ is to protect their own health and safety
10. unattended and unfastened lying cables tripping hazards _____ and damage to the equipment
13. safety glasses, hard hats, gloves, etc.
15. Do not _____ fire escape passageways and fire fighting equipments
17. Spilled liquids create _____ and need to be cleaned up/or identified immediately

18. Reporting unsafe acts and unsafe conditions can often help prevent _____

19. Do not overload electrical circuits. Use only one _____ for each socket

20. _____ is matching the job to the worker

Down

2. an electrical connection with the earth
3. The possibility of an endangerment resulting in injury
4. It is our _____ to work safely and report hazards
7. The workplace health and safety (WHS) is also referred to as _____ health and safety

8. Store _____ items in lower drawers or on lower shelves

9. When operating with tools, one of the hazards that relates to it is called _____ hazards.

11. If a severe injury occurs then call the _____

12. If you own a business, there are _____ prerequisites that are you must follow to ensure that your workplace meets the WHS obligations.

14. _____ are a serious injury that can be caused by heat, electricity, chemicals, light, radiation or friction.

16. If you run a business or organisation, you must provide information, _____ and supervision to keep all people safe from any risks that might arise from the work you're doing.