

Name: _____ Date: _____

Roald Dahl's The Landlady

Across

3. says the lady comes out of the inn like this

5. the word Billy uses to describe himself

6. tasted like bitter almond

8. outward appearance

11. pervasive theme in the story

12. they are a good sign in any house

13. the dachshund by the fire

14. don't leave the bed and breakfast

15. WW. signing the guestbook

16. Eton schoolboy

17. aggressively greedy

Down

1. a pub where Billy might have stayed

2. landlady rents only to these

4. the landlady's way to trap her men

7. Billy says he feels this way when outside the B&B

9. the air was deadly cold and wind was like a flat blade of ice on his cheeks

10. Billy's last name