

Name: _____

Date: _____

delirium & dementia

Across

7. nocturnal confusion

8. a body wound or shock produced by sudden physical injury, as from violence or accident.

10. the irreversible impairment in cognition caused by disease or injury to the brain

Down

1. most common form of dementia

2. the reversible alteration in cognition caused by acute conditions

3. the mental capacity or faculty of retaining and reviving facts, events, impressions, etc., or of recalling or recognizing previous experiences.

4. the act or process of knowing; perception

5. the mental capacity or faculty of retaining and reviving facts, events, impressions, etc., or of recalling or recognizing previous experiences.

6. to make unclear or indistinct

9. a disease of the immune system