

Name: _____

Date: _____

3.01 Nervous System Medical Terminology

Across

2. a disorder of varying severity caused by brain injury usually before birth, resulting in the impairment of muscle movement or problems balancing
4. the use of ultrasonic waves for diagnostic or therapeutic purposes
11. loss of voluntary movement
13. relating to or affected by a headache
14. inflammation of the meninges of the brain and spinal cord caused by either a bacterial or viral infection

Down

1. examination of the heart and associated blood vessels using X-rays following the injection of radiopaque substance
3. relating to, or affecting both the nerves and the blood vessels
5. collection of spinal roots descending from the lower spinal cord and occupying the vertebral canal below the cord
6. diminished sensitivity to pain

7. downward displacement of the spleen

8. surgical incision into the skull

9. science dealing with the mind and mental processes

10. a fine, delicate membrane, the middle of the three that surround the brain and spinal cord

12. paralysis of the heart