

Pre License

Across

6. zoning of one spot for a use that is not consistent with the area

10. anything that belongs to the real property

13. this type of ownership has right of survivorship

14. an item of personal property that has been permanently attached to the real estate

15. this is the land and things permanently attached

16. the process by which the government implements the right to take privately owned property

17. tenants right of possession for a specific time under a lease agreement

18. type of ownership where there is right of inheritance

Down

1. the right to use the land of another for a specific purpose

2. strongest deed you can give or receive

3. the right the government has to acquire privately owned real estate for public use

4. this type of estate is based on the life of some other person

5. when you build a structure that illegally extends beyond your land

7. anything that effects title to real estate

8. when a person dies without a will

9. What is the right the state has to adopt and enforce laws

11. this refers to the degree, quantity, nature and extent of ownership one has in real property

12. a personal revocable privilege